

PRESIDENT'S MALARIA INITIATIVE
MALARIA COMMUNITIES PROGRAM
FY 2007 RFA WORKSHOP ANNOUNCEMENT

The President's Malaria Initiative (PMI) is pleased to announce the FY 2007 Malaria Communities Program (MCP) Request for Applications (RFA) Workshop. This Program was announced by First Lady Laura Bush on December 14, 2006, to offer opportunities specifically aimed at new partners, including local and indigenous groups in PMI focus countries.

FY 2007 RFA Workshop:

There will be a FY 2007 MCP RFA Workshop for interested applicants on April 10, 2007 at 1:00 PM, located at Hotel Washington, 15th & Pennsylvania Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20004, including presentations on the PMI and MCP RFA as well as a Q&A session. Information about the workshop and the agenda is available on the PMI website at: www.fightingmalaria.gov.

To RSVP for the workshop, please send an email with the name of your organization and the expected number of attendees to pmimcp@usaid.gov.

Attendees are asked to bring their own copy of the FY 2007 MCP RFA to the workshop as copies will not be provided. All other materials, including the presentations, will be available at: www.fightingmalaria.gov after the event. Please direct your question about this workshop to Jennifer Yourkavitch, MCP Liaison (tel:301-572-0821 or email: jennifer.m.yourkavitch@orcmacro.com).

Eligibility Requirements:

The MCP is a competitive assistance program open to all U.S.-based non-governmental organizations/private voluntary organizations and in-country non-governmental organizations (see eligible countries in Section III, B. Eligible Countries of the RFA) and their local partners in the PMI focus countries, to carry out sustainable malaria prevention and control activities under the PMI. For more information on eligibility requirements, refer to Section III, A. Eligibility Requirements of the RFA.
